I see people around rushing for more!
Madly looking to score and to soar!
Regardless the domain they aim to store
Much more than that of the next door!

Rushing continues right from school
Either for marks or for talent pool!
Aiming to earn decent and stay cool!
Ignoring sometimes many a rule!

Even in job hierarchy, there is a rush
Little do they attend on skills to brush!
On their inability they simply blush
Regardless, they aim to have all plush!

Everyone rush for Govt. jobs in life to settle
With no ambition to improve their mettle!
When sought on their skills set they nettle
To achieve which they take all the fettle!

Rush and rush for more is the new buzz!
Aiming for more is what everyone does !
