

EDITOR'S NOTE

Dear Readers and Contributors,

"Do research. Feed your talent. Research not only wins the war on cliché, it's the key to victory over fear and its cousin, depression." — Robert McKee

Greetings and a warm welcome to December issue of Global English-Oriented Research Journal (GEORJ).

This journal targets all those involved in the teaching of English Language globally. Its primary aim is to build a platform for research-lovers in diverse fields of English Language, Literature and Language Education Practices (LEP); it also welcomes a few genres of Creative Writing such as poem, short story etc.

We take this opportunity to thank all our valuable readers and writers who supported and accompanied us in our journey in 2015. The New Year 2016 is coming with a lot of new hopes and aspirations. We wish you all the very best for your research activities! We look forward to receiving your contributions to YOUR next GEORJ.

We hope you enjoy reading this issue as much as we enjoyed putting it together.

"Books are a guide in youth, and an entertainment for age. They support us under solitude and keep us from becoming a burden to ourselves." Collier

Enjoy Reading!
