

EDITOR'S NOTE

Dear Readers and Authors

Welcome to the horizon of another wonderful issue!

Let me take this opportunity to congratulate and express my gratitude to all of you, especially to the Board of Editors, on the occasion of completing one successful year of publication with IBI Factor 2.9.

“Research is creating new knowledge”, Neil Armstrong.

This underpins the importance and relevance of being research-oriented. As we have stated on the journal's home page, the main aim of this journal is to widen the level of global knowledge sharing by setting the stage for researchers & creative writers to interact with a community of readers across the globe.

Research is the outcome of constant dedication and inspiration. In view of encouraging the authors, the journal has introduced the BEST PAPER AWARD that honors the author/s of the outstanding paper of every issue. The winners publish a second paper FREE !!!

We wish you all the very best for your research activities! We look forward to receiving your contributions to the next issue – June 2016. Though it is published quarterly (Mar/Jun/Sep/Dec), submission is open throughout the year.

Editor in Chief
