

WISHES TO MY SON ON HIS 10TH BIRTHDAY... (Poem)

Dr. D. Ashalatha

Chennai

Ten wonderful years of friendship
it's amazing to see the time fly.

You are my everything in this world
bliss to live for even when I become old.

You are my life, self-respect and treasure
each day as you grow I get immense pleasure.

Waking up to distant far away dream
your birth made my eyes gleam.

Your sweet little charm and smile
give me strength to walk any mile.

With your soft lovely hands you hold my hand
I promise I will right by your side forever stand.

It was beautiful raising you all these ten years
as I enjoyed every moment without any fears.

All I want for you is an exciting future
you will achieve everything with your cute nature.

I cherish all the moments we share with precious happiness and care.

You are the one who made me feel comfortable
whenever I was in depressed trouble.

You take on life with all the skills endowed every single triumph of yours makes me proud.

I want you to grow with courage and positive spirit
to explore the adventures of life with true merit.

You should be a leader, innovator and achiever
but always a good human being and certainly clever.

It's ineffable to say what you mean to me
ours is a special bond as it should be.

At this age I want you to relish the joys which nurture the personality of boys.

Take every day as it comes with grit
to become a performer you are fit.

God has blessed me with you dear
and made all my goals clear.

I thank God for such a lovely son
because you are unique and the best one.

Many wishes and blessings on this 10th Birthday
to rejoice and celebrate the magic of life everyday.
