

'To be an English Man'

(A love for English)

Chidanand Navi

Composite Residential Science P U College
Chandargi-591114.

“Do you want to lead or have a bright future in your life?

Than- what you have to do now?

You should take oath or promise from today onwards

Because, you need to improve your

English language”.

Your day begins with the fresh breath of English,

To wash your face with English water,

To make brush your teeth from the English paste,

To take bath warm water of English

To have a cup of strong tea or coffee in English

To get ready as an English gentleman to go to school or college

To have breakfast with English taste or flavor

To move towards school or college in English path or vehicle

To interact with your teacher as well as your friends in English pleasure

To enjoy the leisure time in English
To have delicious lunch with English taste
To enjoy the afternoon periods with English zeal
To respond your teachers and give respect and answer in English
To take praises from your teacher in English
To play the different kinds of games in the English stamina
To be friendly and behave politely with your friends in English
To go to home on English pavement or path
To get fresh in the evening with English water
To have boost or milk in English
To take involvement in each competition with zeal of English

To win in the any competition but get joy in English
To lost the in the competition but you find the faults in English
To go for an evening walk in English
To smell the flowers in English garden
To go to swimming, swim with the English joy
To do home-work in English
To have delicious dinner or supper in English
To start sleeping in English
To find dreams in English
To learn snoring in English
Again you get up from the fresh air of English.....

