Abstract:

Mother is God. She is the nurturer, protector and perceiver in all living creatures. Small tribute to all mothers in the form of words, although I am short of but I have tried my best to come out.

Keywords: Mother, God, Affection, Protection.

The mother is just another

Face of God.

The eyes showering compassion and love

The lips in praise

The heart full of affection

Hands to embrace.

The ever increasing wealth

The strong protection

For us scarifying self

Giving loads of inspiration.

All days are yours

All moments yours

All success yours

Forever humble yours

Oh all Mothers!
