A DAY (Poem)

Vinod

Asst. Professor Dept of PG Studies in English BVVS Arts College, Bagalkot.

The day which made the world blind I accept

But the day which made the world bright we reject.

Accept and reject leads the world

But we don't know

which we reject.

The power of the world

and the nature itself
had two faces.
The day which creates
New world, new fertility
That we must accept.
