

Listen To My Tale!

Dr. S. Anita Evelyn

Associate Professor, Dept. Of English

Tamil Nadu, India.

*At the dawn of twilight
Birdies chirp in delight,
Me a commoner set things right
Jus' to close my eyes tight...*

*Chasing in this wild goose race
My goal is to find a place
In heaven above with His grace
Till the end, singing His praise...*

*What a joy to me when feeling low
My spirit boosts though through the blow
Not the trouble but the cross
Not the pain but the cause*

*Keeps me going as I'm tossed
Not rain or shine can stop me nor pause
Yonder call o'er the sea I hear
Least bothered about the tempest here*

*You're no better than me I call out to them
He masters me and 'am secure in His den
No want I'll have all through my journey
It's His will what I should be...*

*Learn the truth or you'll regret later
'Tis my Master and none can be better
Surrender your will to the creator
He'll guide you through though you need to cross a crater!*
